

A short Story written by AI

(The bold parts are written by me)

I once met a wise elephant named Worang.

I said to Worang: "Why can't we humans and elephants walk together?"

"I'll tell you why! If you ride on an elephant's back it feels like you riding on a bicycle, but you could never go in front because an elephant's front is too high! And you could never go behind an elephant because his hind is too low!"

Then I said to Worang: "Tell me how to bridge the gap- How could man and elephant live in harmony?"

Worang was silent for a while thinking about my question, and then said: "From one piece of wood - two boats!"

That was not the answer I was hoping to achieve, so I asked: "What do you mean?"

"When two different animals can see eye to eye, I call it a unity from diversity!"

Worang said: "We humans and elephants can live together happily, because we both possess a focused mind, a focused heart and a focused will!"

"That might be true, but unfortunately very few of us possess them from the core!"

"In reality it's not about living together happily but more about "surviving together happily", isn't it?"

"Unfortunately, "Surviving together happily" does not have to be generated or generated through barriers of each other to thrive, does it?"

The United States is endowed with all kinds of resources, but can it survive happy if it spends without limit? Is there any country in the world where Freedom of Speech is practiced? On the streets of New York, if you shout "I love the King of Thailand!", I'm afraid you'd be arrested or hunted down... Why should it be so? Why, if the king of Thailand is loved by people, can't they show their affection to him?

Another shining example is the story of Khun Abhaiwongse! While he was still the Prime Minister of Thailand, during his holidays he snatched away the crown of the throne by himself ! ! ! ! !

Man!!!!!!

Suppose he attempted to snatch the fairy princess, or Princess Tara away, I guarantee, it would have caused uproar all over the country!!

Then, Don't you think it's very much surprising why our Thai King, Piyamodh's accesories are worth BILLIONS, IS PISSED OFF, BUT NO ONES ARRESTED HIM? It would be totally unacceptable that if the King came to this neighborhood belonging to the Green Alliance, to watch his beloved football team winning, for instance, by PISSING IN THE PLANTS IN FRONT OF SOME NEIGHBHORS' DOORS??!?

But back to living together in peace... All living beings here on Earth are already here on the planet! Try to think of what will happen when your country or continent, or our country or continent meets some ill fate?

We do not worry about the war-torn countries, but what will happen afterwards? There is no paradise for somebody else, but paradise is all around us here!

Even though the heaven on Earth is not physically visible, it does not matter!

Beauty is not something that is stamped by over-polishing over the stamped materials put on the surface, but it's something that came down, coming down like warm rain, like sunlight, it's a warm heart that is filled with love! Because all the beautiful things that surround us right now, they all form a mosaic or a picture of happiness! Inside us, the flesh and bones, the heart, liver, kidney etc - nothing is missing – they are all tools! ! ! ! ! !

Due to this heavy syllable, I was very impressed with Buddha! And to me, everything has a cause and effect... Your girlfriend, your boyfriend, your husband, your mother, your father - all have specific functions! Those functions show their belongings for teacher! We were born wealthy and healthy to enjoy a long, long happy life! This means a happy life for a happy generation, that happy generation into a happy plant, a happy plant to a happy animal, a happy animal to a happy human, a happy human to a happy generation, a happy generation to a happy plant, a happy plant to a happy animal, a happy animal to a happy human."

"Wow, that's so intelligent from you" I said to Worang! "You are smart! Your brain is so strong! You can see what others can't!"

"Oh, you are very flattering me! Seriously, said Worang, Thank you humans, for accepting us elephants here in your house!"

"And thank you elephants, for doing me the great honor! The favor I give back to humans is to love them, while the favor I give back to the elephant is that I will not offend them."

So we sat together for a while, talking about our lives and what gives us joy in the world! After a while Worang stood up and said:" No matter with whom, no matter what time you are looking at, when you are in harmony, when you are in harmony with the earth, the sky, the ground, it gives you a dark cloud of joy forever! "

"Wind"

"The difference between a comfortable home and a luxury home is wherewithal!

It is the strong comfortable house that passes on to the next generation! The unbearable difference between a comfortable home and a comforted home is a mental attitude of the residents! Think about it! From where do we build a warm heart is the nation!

From the beginning is the great deity who was born with love! If love can be extrapolated to enhance others, there is no need to fear death! So, is there heaven and hell?

Finally what I can see is, heaven and hell exist right here, right now! I'm not saying that only the poor and the rich couldn't find comfort and happiness, and that ugly and beautiful could never empathize or understand each other!

My observations are of all living things of all species including humans. If one rose petal falls, the rose bushes living in my heart, they will fall down!

A rose leaf of loveliness has an effect on people all over the world! All of us are citizens of one curved earth ! ! ! ! !

Children of Mother Earth, citizens of the Universe!"

Worang went out and turned to go away.
